Exploring Li and Coire Dhorrcail in Knoydart

Access to Li and Coire Dhorrcail from the east is along a well-constructed path that runs from Kinlochhourn to Barrisdale. From here you can follow the coast, or alternatively a stalkers' path that leads into lower Coire Dhorrcail. It is 12km (7.5 miles) from Kinlochhourn to the east of the property.

Alternatively, a boat can be taken from Mallaig to Inverie. From here a 10km (6 miles) walk over Mam Li leads onto the property, with breathtaking views of Beinn Sgritheall above Arnisdale. There is no regular boat service on the north of the peninsula.

The map on this leaflet is for illustrative purposes only and is not intended for navigation.
