Coronavirus (Covid-19) update:

Young people are invited to write a poem about the Tay and its natural surroundings. It could be about something that lives in or around the Tay (a plant or animal), or an outdoor activity that you did alongside the Tay like walking or canoeing. This could be a memory of an outdoor time you enjoyed with your family or friends. Close your eyes and try to remember, using all your five senses.

The John Muir Trust recognises that people’s connection to wild places is vital for health and wellbeing and asks you access greenspace within current UK Government Coronavirus guidance. www.gov.uk/coronavirus

- Entrance categories: P4-7 | S1-3 | S4-S6
- Please illustrate your poem. Entries can be in English, Scots or Gaelic. Inntrigidhean Gàidhlig agus Beurla
- To enter please send a scan or a picture of your poem to wildspace@johnmuirtrust.org
- Winners will be notified in December and invited to attend to the awards ceremony at the Pitlochry Festival Theatre in spring 2021
- Winning and commended poems will be shared by the John Muir Trust and Pitlochry Festival Theatre
- Winners will be awarded a prize donated by the John Muir Trust, Pitlochry Festival Theatre and local businesses
- For more information email wildspace@johnmuirtrust.org

In partnership with:

John Muir Award